Mary O'H submits

Shadows in the Fire

I sit beside my winter fire,
The flames are warm and bright,
I watch the shadows flicker
Until long into the night.

The orange and red and golden flames
Are beautiful to see,
I look down at my faithful dog,
Whose head rests on my knee.

Quiet winter evenings,
And memories spent alone,
Recall a hundred little joys
And sorrows I have known.

Wind brushes up against the door,
But it is bolted tight,
I have invited memories
To share my hearth, tonight.

Thought for the Week

*I am thankful for all those difficult People in my Life, they have shown me exactly who
I do not want to be.*
