Easter Sunday Blessing

Risen Jesus, Bless this family as we gather to eat together. May we always welcome those who come to share a meal at our table.

Your friends recognised you when you broke the bread for them;

May we also recognise you in the breaking of bread and in each other. We ask this in the name of the God who loves us, the risen Jesus who gave his life that we might have new life in the Spirit.

Easter Hope

As long as the sun comes over the hills,
Scatters the darkness,
And fills the world with light;
As long as the fields get green again,
And daisies and buttercups return;
As long as the trees fill up again with leaves,
There is hope for the world.

So come my friends,
Let us walk over the greening fields,
For the snow has melted,
And life is awakening from its sleep
And wanders through the hills and valleys.

Come, let us follow the footsteps of spring
In the far off fields.
Come, let us ascend the heights
And gaze upon the weaving greenness
Of the plains below.

O come, let us rejoice on this Easter Day,
For death has folded up his tent and gone away.
