Vol. 21 No. 7 Sunday: November 4th, 2012 (Thirty First Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Mary O'Halloran writes and submits....

We Give Our Loved Ones Back

During November we concentrate on remembering our deceased loved ones. We pray for all those who have gone from this earthly life to their eternal reward. We also remember and pray for those who have no remaining family or friends to pray for them.

We ask God to especially heal the pain of those who are recently bereaved while also remembering all other bereaved, particularly those experiencing complicated grief. Pray for each other as we journey through the month of November. We all experience bereavement at some stage in our lives and November is a time of Remembrance and Thanksgiving for the lives and memories of our departed loved ones. At this time we are all in each others prayers as we have given our loved ones back to God.

*We give our loved ones back to God.
And just as he first gave them to us and did not lose them in the giving, so we have not lost them to Him....
for life is eternal,
love is immortal,
death is only a horizon and a horizon is nothing but the limit of our earthly sight.*

*There is no night
Without a dawning,
No winter without a Spring,
And beyond death's dark horizon
Our hearts once more will sing-
For those who leave us for a while
Have only Gone Away
Out of a restless careworn world into a "Brighter Day"*

On this Sunday when we gather for prayers in the cemeteries of the parish, you may like to reflect on the following:-

Lord, we come here today
To revere the memory of those Whom you have called from this life,
We come to the place where their Remains were returned to the earth
In the way of all flesh;
Earth to earth and dust to dust.

Here is where they were entrusted Into your hands, into your love.
Here is where they were given
The final farewell, and prayers
For a safe journey into your keeping.

Here is where we especially ask you
To bestow on them the joy of your peace,
So that together with you
In your eternal home,
Where this world of dust and ashes
And the fragility of this life
No longer hold sway,
They will find eternal rest.
Amen.
