Mothering Sunday

History of Mothers day in Ireland?

The history of celebrating Mothering Sunday or Mothers Day in Ireland can be traced to the medieval practice where children from poor families were sent to work as domestic servants and apprentices to work with the rich. Once in the year in the middle of Lent the children were given a day off to visit their 'Mother Church' and worship the Virgin Mary. After visiting the Mother Church or Cathedral of their home town these children visited their mothers and presented them with flowers they picked along the way. Some girls baked a special Mothering Cake on the day. Patterns of living changed after the Industrial Revolution and Mothering Sunday celebrations almost lapsed. The custom was revived after World War 11. We now celebrate Mothers Day on the fourth Sunday of Lent. On this day people present their mothers with cards, flowers and other gifts to express love and gratitude.

A Mother's Love

There are times when only a Mother's love
Can understand our tears, can soothe our disappointments,
And calm all of our fears.
There are times when only a Mother's love, can share the joy we feel
When something we've dreamed about, quite suddenly is real.

There are times when only a Mother's faith, can help us on life's way
And inspire in us the confidence, we need from day to day.

For a Mother's heart and a Mother's faith
And a Mother's steadfast love
Were fashioned by the Angels
And sent from God above... (author unknown)

*Wishing all Mothers; Grandmothers; Great Grandmothers; and Godmothers of the parish, and Mothers everywhere a Very Happy Mother's Day on Sunday March 10th, 2013.
We also remember and pray for all those who have left their earthly homes and returned home to God.
