Mary O'Halloran submits...

Think of Me

When time has come between us
And I can no longer be by your side
Think not, but that in some way,
I shall still be with you.
Not one sun will rise or set,
nor will a season pass,
But I shall look as you make your life's journey
I will share in your joys and sorrows
Which must come even as the sun and the rain.

Walk in the fields and among the trees
Where the gentle breeze can touch your face
And know that I am in its caress.
Look for me in the face of a flower,
And breathe deeply of my fragrance
And when at any time,
you can listen to the songbirds
They will speak to you of me.
Though grief must have its time,
let it tarry not, or else,
It will keep you from finding me again.
Believe in this truth I give unto you

*For I will be with God
And God is in all things.*

Graveyard Prayers November

The Annual Blessing of the Graves & Prayers for the dead in the graveyards of the parish will take place this Sunday as follows:

Sunday 10th:

Ballyheada: 2.30pm
Ballinaboy: 3.15pm
Goggins Hill: 4.00pm

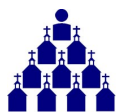

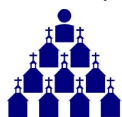

On this Sunday when we gather for prayers in the cemeteries of the parish, you may like to reflect on the following:-

*Lord, we come here today
To revere the memory of those Whom you have called from this life,
We come to the place where their Remains were returned to the earth
In the way of all flesh;
Earth to earth and dust to dust.*

*Here is where they were entrusted
Into your hands, into your love.
Here is where they were given
The final farewell, and prayers
For a safe journey into your keeping.*

*Here is where we especially ask you
To bestow on them the joy of your peace,
So that together with you
In your eternal home,
Where this world of dust and ashes
And the fragility of this life
No longer hold sway,
They will find eternal rest.
Amen.*
