Wrapped with love at Christmas

Once upon a time, there was a man who worked very hard just to keep food on the table for his family. This particular year a few days before Christmas, he punished his little five year old daughter after learning that she had used up the family's only roll of expensive gold wrapping paper.

As money was tight, he became even more upset when on Christmas Eve he saw that the child had used all of the expensive gold paper to decorate one shoebox she had put under the Christmas tree. He was also concerned about where she got the money to buy what was in the shoebox.

Nevertheless, the next morning the little girl, filled with excitement, brought the gift box to her father and said "This is for you, Daddy!"

As he opened the box, the father was embarrassed by his earlier over reaction, now regretting how he had punished her. But when he opened the shoebox, he found it was empty and again his anger flared.

"Don't you know, young lady," he said harshly, "when you give someone a present, there's supposed to be something inside the package."

The little girl looked up at him with sad tears rolling from her eyes and whispered: "Daddy, it's not empty. I blew kisses into it until it was full."

The father was crushed. He fell on his knees and put his arms around his precious little girl. He begged her to forgive him for his unnecessary anger.

A short time later the little girl died in an accident. The father kept the little gold box beside his bed all the years of his life. Whenever he was discouraged or faced difficult problems, he would open the box, take out an imaginary kiss, and remember the love of this beautiful child who had put it there.

In a very real sense, each of us has been given an invisible golden box filled with unconditional love and kisses from our children, family, friends and God. There is no more precious possession anyone could hold. Happy Christmas everyone!!!
