Vol. 25 No. 37 Sunday: May 28th, 2017 (The Ascension Of The Lord)

Fr. Christy writes

WHAT NEXT

Well he's gone, and this time it appears for good. Or is it for good? The disciples are asked why are you looking up to the sky? He is in Heaven. So, stop looking up for him. Ascension Day tells us that if we're looking for Jesus we need a new way of seeing him, a new way of following, and its called faith. We have to start looking for him in a different way!

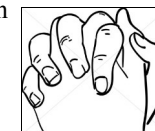

Jesus is here in a different way. How then do we find him? Like the disciples we need to stop, reflect, pray, search and we will find him. But, are we prepared to find him where he is? Deep within all who are baptised, yes.

But that means that he is as present in the people I avoid or dislike as much as in the people I like.

Jesus' message is one of a promise and a hope that is fulfilled in him but that will be fully revealed and completely fulfilled when all are gathered together, united with Him and with one another in Heaven. We are a people who in finding Jesus, are challenged not to lose him again but rather to take heart, find hope and move forward just as Jesus would himself. We let him live in and through us and everyone else as well and we make a little bit of heaven on earth!

To day May 28th is World Communications Day.
Theme 2017: "fear not, for I am with you: communicating hope and trust in our time"
(From the book of Isaiah)
