Remembering

Everybody loves to be remembered
But if we want to be remembered
We have a duty also to remember

Memory is a powerful thing.
Wrongly used it can bring death rather than life
Rightly used it is a form of immortality.
It keeps the past alive.

Those we remember never die
They continue to walk and talk with us
Their influence is still felt among us

There is nothing stronger or more helpful than a good remembrance.

Dear departed friends
We want you to know we haven't forgotten you.
We remember you.
And your memory most definitely
Brings life to us today.

May it also assure us of life for you,
That eternal life Christ came on earth to give us.

Mass for Bereaved

All those who suffered a bereavement in the past twelve months, their family members, neighbours and friends are especially invited to attend this Special Mass on:-

Monday November 12th at 7.30pm in Ballygarvan Church

As part of the ceremony everybody will be invited to bring a lighted candle, available at the door, to the altar on entering the church. These individual candles will then symbolise a community of inclusiveness and hope.

The night, however, is not only for those bereaved in the past twelve months, it is a night for remembering and praying for all who are grieving. There is a great tradition of support and understanding in our parish at times of bereavement. The night will be another opportunity to offer sympathy, and support through being present and praying with our bereaved families, neighbours and friends. All welcome.

Reflection :-

Cherished Memories

You can shed tears that they have gone, or you can smile because they lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that they'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all they have left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see them, or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember them only that they have gone, or you can cherish their memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back.

Or you can do what they'd want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Talk for Parents on Post Leaving Certificate courses outside the CAO in Ballincollig Community School on Nov.13th at 7.30pm. Admission free. Representatives from apprenticeship and colleges of further education. All welcome.
