Vol. 29 No. 1 Sunday: October 4th, 2020 (Twenty Seventh Sunday In Ordinary Time)

If this time has taught me anything.....

If this time has taught me anything, it is that the tiny spec in this universe that we occupy is both wonderful and wondrous, and if we allow it to, the beauty around us can unlock the beauty within us; and teach us far more than our schooling ever did.

If this time has taught me anything, it is that success and how we measure it, needs to be re-defined and that the only person to whom you should ever compare yourself, is who you were yesterday, if you are doing your best then you are doing enough.

If this time has taught me anything, it is that it is more important now than ever before to see the world through your own eyes, begin by looking at yourself -look inwards with compassion and kindness and look outward with humility and appreciation.

If this time has taught me anything, it is that the opposite of love is not hate but fear - and our greatest fear is losing that to which we have become attached. If yesterday was heavy put it down. Life really is about the journey, not only the destination and it must be, for surely we are not here merely to reach the destination. Be alive, for after all life is what you have got.

If this time has taught me anything, it is that bitter tears are the quietest, and on the days when your head wants to hang low, it is important that you look up. Lift your head, for while this world can sometimes be a hard place, your reality and what you perceive it to be are seldom aligned. Know that you are more than your scars - and that every wound in you that has healed along the way has taught you to fight back and start again from where you are now.

If this time has taught me anything it is that HOPE matters and we cannot live without it. HOPE is not a wish nor a desire for things to be different. The future can be better and can be brighter and we each have the power within us to make it so. There will be challenges to face along the way, to which there are many solutions. There is a source of resilience deep within us all.

Every day is a gift - a gift to begin again, and to grasp with both hands, the opportunity to learn again, unlearn and relearn if this time is not wasted. If this time does not teach us that time itself is precious...then we have missed the lesson. (Mary O'H submits....)

Ballinhassig Parish Newsletter Twenty Ninth Edition

Holidays are over, following an eventful and unprecedented summer, routine has begun and the weekly Newsletter is back along with our autumn weather. This publication is the Twenty Ninth Edition of the Ballinhassig Parish Newsletter. Since its introduction in the autumn twenty nine years ago it has been published voluntarily on a weekly basis from September to June.

Thanks to everyone who collects and submits news, the remaining few who distribute it to station areas and the many parishioners who were involved in any way with the publication over the years.

The newsletter is now produced, edited and printed in the P.A.N. Centre (Parish Office). It contains both church related and news from individuals, clubs and organisations from all areas of the parish. The publication may look small, but it takes effort and dedication to keep it going week after week, year after year.

We hope you will continue to enjoy and support our Newsletter and that it will continue to meet the parishioners needs as a means of communicating parish related information.

We would like to take this opportunity to once again remind all individuals, clubs and organisations to continue to send in the news from all areas of the parish.

It is essential that notices/news are received in the P.A.N. Centre (Parish Office) by 2.00pm on Wednesday;

email:- maryohal2020@gmail.com
ballinhassigparish@gmail.com and read or download on www.ballinhassigparish.com

Looking forward to your continued support and co-operation in the year ahead.
