BEING MISSIONARIES TODAY

When I was a child going to school, going on the Missions meant going very far away, usually to Africa. We heard visiting missionaries talk about their work and the experiences they had. I can also remember fellow priests talk enthusiastically about their time on the Diocesan Mission to South America.

In more recent times we have all learned that we are all called to be missionaries. Each of us is called by virtue of our Baptism to spread the message of Christ in the living out of our faith. On this Mission Sunday we are all reminded to renew that sense of Mission and to look for the best way we can in making the Lord's Mission a reality today.

This weekend we welcome Bishop Fintan Gavin on his first Pastoral Visit to our parish. We extend to him a 'Céad míle fáilte'. It is also a time of great celebration as we mark the first of three consecutive bi-centenaries. We give thanks for the enormous sacrifices made by those who have gone before us, who built 3 churches in three consecutive years during extremely difficult times and who ensured that the practice of our faith and the celebration of the Sacraments could take place.

Inspired by their example, and renewing our commitment to the Mission of the Church in spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ we look forward to playing our part in continuing to celebrate and hand on the faith.

Goggins Hill Church Bicentenary Mass October 24th

This week end we celebrate the Bicentenary of the "Most Holy Heart of Mary" Goggins Hill or better known locally as the 'Mountain Church' This is the first of a trio of Bicentenary of our churches. Goggins Hill 2021; Ballygarvan 2022 and Ballyheada in 2023.

This week end October 23rd/24th Bishop Fintan Gavin will visit Ballinhassig Parish as part of his diocesan parish visitations. He will celebrate the Bicentenary Mass in Goggins Hill. (LIVE STREAMED)

Bishop Fintan will celebrate Mass on:-
Saturday 23rd at 7.00pm in Ballyheada;
Sunday 24th at 10.00am in Ballygarvan and the Bicentenary Mass at 12.00noon in Goggins Hill.

Bishop Fintan will chat with parishioners after each Mass and also in Goggins Hill School following the 12noon Mass.

For the Health & Safety of all we urge everybody to be mindful of you own safety and that of others. Wear you mask, sanitise and observe social distance.

Many parishioners have given their time, talents and help over recent weeks with the preparations for this special celebration. Parish Assembly along with many others were involved in preparing all areas of the Liturgy. Sincere thanks to all who have helped in any way, those who have yet to do so with preparations, and those who will help this week end.

Special thanks to our choir members who have come together at such short notice, considering it is eighteen months since they were able to sing together.

We are blessed to live in a parish where your generosity and continued support make our parish occasions truly memorable. This will no doubt be a special and joyous celebration of 200 years of a faith and historical journey of Goggins Hill church and a memorable parish event for all of your families.
